

Katarina tour

In the 15th century, the Kosača family ruled the area of Hum (Herzegovina) and was one of the most powerful noble families in the Kingdom of Bosnia. There are assumptions that the family was named after the village of Kosač near the rivers Piva and Tara. The influence and power of Kosača can be seen during the time of the first Bosnian king Tyrtko 1.

Stjepan-grad Blagaj

The old town of Blagaj or Stjepan-grad was built on the most prominent place of a high and hardly accessible karst hill, at 310 meters above sea level and above the spring of the river Buna, which is 266 m away.

By the decision of the Commission to Preserve National Monuments of BiH, the architectural ensemble STJEPAN GRAD IN BLAGAJ was declared a National Monument of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

River "Buna" spring

East of Mostar is the spring of the Buna River, and it is the largest karst spring in Europe with an average annual flow of 43 m³ per second.

The spring is located below a 200m high stone cliff, and the Dervish Tekija was built nearby, which was mentioned in 1664 by the travel writer Evlija Ćelebija. The water springs from a 17-meter-wide cave, and according to research, the underground flow of the Buna spring is about 200 m long. The river is 9 kilometers long, and it eventually flows into Neretva.

"Bunica" Boating

An unforgettable trip to the spring of Bunica, and a boat ride on the river Bunica in untouched nature and a tour of the springs of the river. The offer includes a boat ride lasting 1h 15m approx., as well as homemade coffee for each person and homemade seasonal fruits.

When you need a vacation the most, sail with us. Your Bunica Boating.

Stari grad Počitelj

Počitelj is a perfect place for you to recharge your batteries and enjoy the beautiful nature, especially if you are looking for an idyllic place where there is not a bunch of hotels, restaurants, and cafes.

According to assumptions, the old town of Počitelj was built by the Bosnian king Stjepan Tvrtko I. at the end of the 14th century. The town was morphologically adapted to the terrain on a rocky cliff above the bank of the river Neretva. In written sources, it was first mentioned in 1444.

Sports - adventure park Fortica

While many find refreshment on hot summer days at the beaches, some want to spend their vacation actively. Those a little bolder test the limits of their courage in air. This is, among other things, offered by the Fortica Sports and Adventure Park.

Active Active Tourism offer: Zipline, climbing, Abseil (Rappel), Via Ferrata, hiking, MTB, Mountain safari, Mountain lodge .

Old Bridge Mostar

The old bridge was built in the period between 1557-1566 above the river Neretva. A wooden bridge and two towers were first built on this site, as evidenced in written form by Vladislav Hercegović, the Duke Stjepan's son. The Ottomans built the first stone bridge soon after the conquest of this area, under the management of the Ottoman builder Hajrudin.

Bridge jumping and even the Red Bull World Series program in extreme diving is traditionally held at this site.

Eno offers in Mostar

The vineyards of Mostar sprang up on the sparse Herzegovinian land, karst, stone and thorns vineyards as a testimony to Herzegovinian perseverance and defiance. Winemaking in Herzegovina is the main branch of agriculture, but also it can be said that it is a way of life.

Herzegovinian winemakers today want to be recognized by their Žilavka and Blatina as unique varieties in the wine world, and they present themselves to the world through this wine that carries the scent of the earth and the intensity of the Herzegovinian sun.

Gastro offers in Mostar

Herzegovinian cuisine is slightly different from the Bosnian. Herzegovinians use more vegetables; the dishes are tastier and lighter. The influence of Turkish and Greek cuisine is an integral part traditional gastronomy, but lately European flavors, especially Italian have also become prominent.

Mostar is fulfilled with restaurants where you can taste excellent dishes at a reasonable price. One should just enter one of many restaurants and cafes in the old town.
